“ Daniel was Aria's very best friend in first grade. When your family moved in we were so excited!! Being upstairs & downstairs neighbors was the best! After enjoying our time getting to know your family, we moved away first. :(These pictures are from that last goodbye. I was packing up the other three kids after saying one final round of goodbyes to the neighbors, and I turned around to see Aria was missing. Then I caught Daniel peeking out of your front door, laughing. ^_^ Ah ha! I knocked on the door and these four darling faces greeted me! Daniel exclaimed, 'Let her stay with us just THREE more weeks!! Then you can come get her. School is Almost over; she'll miss the parties!!' I tried for a smile and told them the drive was too far to 'just come get her later.' Exasperated he said, 'Okay, fine. Just SIX more days!!!!' Oh, sweet boy! I wish we could stay and be your neighbor for all the years! <3 Daniel's smile, enthusiasm, humor, and joy remain deep in our hearts. I remember them building snowmen, having snowball fights; riding bicycles, playing games, & leading the younger kids in the neighborhood on treasure hunts and adventures. Such sweet, treasured memories. We love your Daniel!!

“ I too remember the Sunday that Daniel first blessed the Sacrament... I sat there listening to the words of the prayer as if it was the first time I had heard it. Tears streaming down my cheeks, so proud of him. The Spirit was very strong that day. He was one of few words but touched so many hearts. I also loved hearing him yell "Mom" from the other room for Sandra when I was there helping her out. He knew what he wanted and didn't like to wait. I feel blessed that our paths crossed and honored to say I knew him. My love goes out to the whole family in this time of grief. We are blessed to know that family's are eternal and this is just goodbye for awhile.

“ Brother and Sister Haertling, My memory of Daniel saying the sacrament prayer is forever etched in my memory. I had never felt the spirit so strongly as I did when the sacrament prayer was said. Thank you for sharing this beautiful and special soul with the Springfield Ward. We are much stronger having felt his influence. May the Lord bless and sustain your family during this difficult time. “ Beau, Sandra, Emma, Nathan, and Isaac...I, too, will never forget the spirit filled chapel the Sundays that Daniel blessed the sacrament. It was as if the Savior himself were there. His example is forever in my heart. Your examples as parents strengthens my desire to be a better mother, grandmother, and friend. May the treasures of wonderful memories bring some comfort to your hearts. We love you. Guerry and Vicki

“ Dear sweet Haertling Family,
I just wanted to let you know my heart aches over the loss of your dear boy. I had the pleasure of working with Daniel at Lincoln Elementary when you lived in Rexburg. Daniel and I were good friends. He did not enjoy academics at that period of his life. I spent a lot of time trying to figure out just how we could make learning engaging. One of his favorite ways to study spelling was to write in a yellow highlighter and then turn off the lights and read it with a black light flashlight. He had not been diagnosed with FA while he was at Lincoln, but I remember watching his motor skills degenerate and feeling helpless as to how to help him. He was lucky to have been born to such awesome parents. You have done your best to help him succeed and reach his highest potential. I am excited to meet him again in another life. I hope he has fond memories of his time at Lincoln.
