“ Blessings and prayers to all. Jeff touched many lives with his photography. I first met Jeff about 10 years photographing Oakwood football. I last spoke to Jeff 9/4 during a Friday night thunderstorm delayed football game. Great memories. I can't believe you are gone. Rest in peace Jeff.

“ Jeffrey was my friend for 40 years. We spoke often of how life had changed over the years. Jeff was always positive and seldom shared his problems. He loved his family dearly and often spoke of his co-workers as if they were part of his family. I will miss my friend dearly.

“ Jeff had worked for Easterling Studios for 13 years. He was a very hard working and dedicated employee. Jeff spend his last days doing what he loved best, which was taking photos. He was like family to us and will be truly missed. We will always think of you when we walk by your favorite chair in the lobby and your dirty coffee cup sitting in the work room waiting to be filled. Jeff was an employee and a friend that can never be replaced. Who-Dey!

“ Jeff was my buddy at Easterling Studio. Whenever I worked, he would always greet me in the morning with, "Dr. Ken, you're here" and during the workday, "Dr. Ken, you're still here." Since I was the one who made the coffee, he would always say, "How's the coffee today, Dr. Ken"? And, before leaving at the end of the day, he always asked me when I worked next. I never imagined when I left the school photography shoot on Thursday and told him to take care, that I would never hear him say or ask those things again.
