“ I did not have the pleasure of knowing Albion but I do know his son Lee and family. My sympathy goes to all. And he did well with Lee and I know he will be missed. And his footprints will be left on the hearts of those he loved dearly.

“ We, at the Enon Community Historical Society (ECHS) are going to miss Al tremendously. He was a volunteer with a wealth of knowledge on covered bridges, trains and things associated with trains, and history of the area. He was also a good friend and could talk on any subject. May you rest in peace, Al.
