I'm so sorry to hear this. Tony was a lifelong friend. We met the first day of 6th grade on Orville wright playground and were best friends for a few years. I stayed at his house more than my own. His mom, God bless her, treated me like her own. She always brought me a sub from cassanos when she worked there and she even bought me a coat for Christmas one year.i loved them both like family. God bless these two gentle wonderful people.
