Rodney, Todd and Robbie, I remember your mom as a sweet, hospitable woman. She loved you boys. I remember your home being expertly kept, everything so tidy. Your mom was a superb housekeeper. She still looks great in those photos. I am sorry for your loss.

Rodney/Chip :-)

I am so sorry to hear of your beautiful Mother's passing. While I didn't know her personally, I experienced the results of her loving care to her family when I met you and you brought such joy and laughter to our hospital. I so admire your giving, loving attitude and you have shared your life experiences and trips with me and so many others. I love you dear friend and will keep you and your family in my prayers.

*Lovingly,
Dee, Mario and Angel*

Rodney, my deepest condolences to you and your family on the passing of your Mom. Though I never had the pleasure of meeting her, her love, joy and beauty have shined through in this video as well as the photos and stories you have shared over the years. Though her journey her on earth is complete, heaven has gained a beautiful soul to watch over you.

“ Even though I love my mom more than words can say, Aunt Barbara was the first mother I knew. She took me home straight from the hospital after I was born and mothered me until my mom was well enough to take me home. I called her moma. I loved her and had such great memories of our visits there every year and I am so blessed that God gave us the opportunity to share Christmas with her a couple of years ago. I am so grateful that I was able to share my home with her and make it as special for her as it was for me. I love you Aunt Barbara and will miss you but I am comforted knowing she is with my Savoir and that I will see her again

“ Rodney and Todd, the funeral service for Barb was so beautiful and she would have been so proud of her boys. She was a special big sister and taught me a lot....like how to fold cloth diapers perfectly, how to make potato salad and tuna casserole. I learned a lot from her about how to be a homemaker and well to many things to mention. She loved to laugh and we had so much fun together. I'm going to miss her but I am so happy to know she was ready for her new home in Heaven. love you, Aunt Starla

“ I so loved going to visit Aunt Barb and whole Daly clan. We traveled to Enon so much that I could give Dad turn-by-turn directions at just four years old. I love you Barry and miss you dearly.

"Barb" not Barry. Auto-correct strikes again

“ Always loved Barb. She was such a great person. When ever Doug and I would get together with Rod and her, it was so much fun. She loved to do puzzles, so the last time we got to see her, Doug and I had a bagfull of puzzles for her to do. We will miss her. She was a special person and one of a kind. Another angel to watch over us.
