

Barbara Lydia Huddleston

July 16, 1924 - October 28, 2021

Barbara Lydia Clarkson Huddleston, age 97, passed away on Thursday, October 28, 2021. She was born in Ipswich, England on July 16, 1924 and graced those who knew her with her English charm and kindness. Barbara grew up in England during the World War II era and moved to the United States in 1962 after marrying Elton “Bud” Huddleston. She was a dedicated and remarkable Air Force wife and mother. Barbara loved her daily tea, baking, traveling, reading, gardening, animals, and most of all her beloved daughter, Susan and her boxer, Coco. She was preceded in death by her loving husband Elton “Bud” Huddleston, her sister Elizabeth Clarkson Maree and brother in-law Howard Maree, “special” daughter and niece Sandra Burr and “special” sons and nephews Howard Maree and Charles Maree, her parents, Charles and Lydia Clarkson. She is survived by her daughter Susan Huddleston Bowers, “special” daughter and niece Karen Moshoures (Chris) of Ocean Isle Beach, North Carolina, cousin Iris Isherwood of Cornwall, England, several great nieces and nephews along with the many friends and extended “family” who loved her and affectionately referred to her as “The Queen.” In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting donations be made to the Animal Welfare League of Clark County, Springfield, Ohio in her honor. The family is having a private memorial and burial. Adkins Funeral Home, Enon, Ohio is assisting the family with Barbara’s final wishes.

Cemetery Details

Dayton National Cemetery

4100 West Third Street
Dayton, OH 45428

Events

Details are pending.