Barbara Antoinette (Horton) Olgeaty, a beloved figure in her church community and an embodiment of resilience, passed away peacefully June 11, 2024, after a valiant 25-year struggle with cancer. Known affectionately as Toni, she leaves behind a legacy of love and strength. She was born Dec 29, 1939, in Syracuse, New York.

A Life of Love: Toni's marriage to Col. (ret.) Edward C. Olgeaty, Jr. spanned nearly 64 years, a testament to their enduring love and companionship. They were voted "best couple" of their senior class at West Genesee High School in Camillus, New York. Toni lovingly supported Eddie during his 30-year career in the United States Air Force.

Family Matriarch: She is mourned by her husband and their three children, Vicki (Ron) Fry, Scott (Jackie DeVaul) Olgeaty, and Sandi (Mark) Bowman. Toni found so much joy in her five grandchildren: Leah (Kyle) Liddy; Kellie and Tyler Olgeaty; and Jason and Jacob Bowman; and her two great-grandchildren: Isaac and Maxwell Liddy. She also is survived by two beloved sisters, Judy (David) Clark and Donna (John) Uppole; sister-in-law Diane (Mike) Ross; and numerous nieces and nephews. They all will carry forward her spirit of courage. A treasured sister, Lynda (Ottar) Loland, preceded Toni in death.

A Lasting Impact: Toni's 30-year career as a personnel specialist for the Department of Defense showcased her commitment to serving others, a value she upheld throughout her life.

In Loving Memory: Services will be held at St Christopher's Episcopal Church in Fairborn, Ohio at 11:00 AM on June 18, 2024, with burial at Enon Cemetery. “ I worked with "Toni" at the old U.S. Civil Service Commission Area Office in St. Louis, MO back in the late 1970s. She was a Personnel Staffing Assistant at that time (I was a Staffing Clerk). She was fun to be around and made work much more pleasurable. I can't remember one time when she was not smiling.

“ Toni was one of the strongest persons I ever knew. Always smiling and happy regardless of how she was feeling. I always think of her when I make macaroni salad as she loved it. Toni will be missed by everyone who knew her, especially her family. I know I, as well as the rest of Edward's family will miss her. You are in Heaven, Toni and pain free. Love you, Karen & John Weekes
