“ My sincere condolences to the family of Cher. I only knew her from the chat rooms and her encouraging phone calls when I had cancer. I believe the 2 best things to be said about a person when they pass are...they loved and they were loved. Cher personified those 2 traits. I wish you all peace in the coming days. My heartfelt love for you all...Audra hollis

“ Cheryl & I worked together for a very long time at Mercy Medical Center when we were like family & not just employees! We were always laughing & having fun together! She was so much fun to be around! She will be missed greatly by all who knew & loved her! She loved her Mom Barb, her daughters & grandkids so much! That is one of the last things we talked about just a little over a week ago! Just remember her smiling face it will help you get through this! So sorry for your loss! She was one of a kind! You will see her again someday in heaven! R.I.P. my Angel Cheryl! Your Friend Always, Lisa Dean

“ I have way too many memories to share, but I do remember Cheryl beatin my butt and I love her for it. She was a mother to me and a grandmother to my daughter. She took us in when I was struggling and gave us a loving home. She was so fun and animated. I always loved spending time with Cheryl. Heather, Missy, Jess, and all your babies, I love you all so much and I can't even begin to explain how sorry I am. Just can't even believe I'm reading this obituary. I hope that all your memories of her will bring you comfort. God please wrap your arms around this family and help them get through this.

I cannot express enough to all the family how sorry I am. My deepest condolences. I cannot believe she is gone. Cheryl was first American friend I had. When I came to America to live, I needed a doctor for my daughter, along with that I needed directions to get to hospital. Cheryl took us to Mercy wait with us, kept us company the entire time. She was always available as a friend she opened her heart & home to me, my late husband Joe, & my three daughters. I have so many wonderful memories. She was taken from this life too young, will always miss you. - Sarah
