“ When I first started working at WPAFB, my supervisor and I were both new and basically clueless. Cindi went out of her way to take me under her wing and guided me through some fairly complex New Start activities. She was so kind and patient. Whenever I am training someone I think back to that time.

“ Cindi was a wonderful friend and co-worker. I remember one time, around Christmas time, she and I went shopping after an office Holiday luncheon and we had the absolute BEST time. We went to every store in Dayton and bought a ton of Christmas decorations. Our cars were FULL!! We used to talk about that shopping trip all the time! I will miss my friend but I am glad she is no longer suffering. Prayers to the family.
