I remember David as a young boy who lived across the street from us on No. Clairmont in Springfield. I remember babysitting at the home. My sister also babysat the boys later. I loved his Mom & Dad. When I need to go in that end of town I always drive by our old house. Always look over at the Walker Home. Those were good old days.

“ I would give anything to talk to you about the pyramids again. About megalithic structures, mesoamerica. Critical thinking and intellectual thought was our thing. Nature and hiking was something I still do to this day. I listen to the same Music, have the same sense of humor, watch the same movies, and same hobbies with my son that we used to do. Your memory lives on in my daily life not a second goes by I don't do or say or something that makes me stop and think and chuckle to myself, and think that's just like dad. I'm sorry we didn't have more time to have those talks those hikes have those critical thinking moments I had some new theory's I know you would have loved I would give anything to have you back so I could have those intellectual conversations just one more chance to let you know how much we love and miss you everyday and tbinga will never be the same. Rest in Heaven dad and I'm sorry.

“ Daddy, I'm working on your services the best way I can. I'm trying to raise the money to give you the service you deserve. I will miss your sense of humor and going to the Indian mound with you...I'm sorry I didn't get to say goodbye. Me and Giovani love you. Rest peacefully in heaven with grandma and Grandpa now. 💕💔
