You always had such a big beautiful smile. I will never forget our fun times. From trying to sneak out at Camp Kern and crying over boys, to reuniting after many years and talking about how beautiful our daughters are. I will always love you, my friend.

“ In good times and bad, you were always the light of my life. Even though your light has been extinguished all too quickly it still shines in my heart and it always will! You've only been gone a few days but I miss you like crazy already Dawndo but then again, I guess I always will. Your demons are gone now so you can finally rest in peace so if anything good has come out of this, that's a blessing that I can cling to. I wish I could have had one more opportunity to tell you how much I love you face to face and heart to heart but I think you knew that all along. Even though my heart is broken right now, I know that God will let it heal and you'll live there until we can finally be together again.

I love you Dawn and I always will.
