“ I'll always remember Devin, sad I didn't know her better growing up as cousins but I will always have the memory of us, Tracy & Emily playing together when we were little. She and her family are in my heart. What a great video tribute. May peace be with her family.

“ I will miss her and cherish all the memories. I always wanted a sister , and when she became part of the family, she became my sister. I couldn't of asked for a better sister to be in my life and my kids life ,I love her so much ,I'd give anything to have you back with us .I'm truly sorry for her family and mine .I know she is still all around us but its still hard to not see you and talk and laugh with each other. R.I.P Devin ,your an angel .love you

“ Devin and I were close school friends while she was in the Greenon school district. We spent time in Park Layne playing and in Enon. She left good memories with a lot of people. She was a positive and vibrant human. It was an absolute pleasure knowing her. Her children now have an Angel in Heaven.
