

Erika Lee Peyton

September 24, 1999 - March 27, 2018

Erika Lee Peyton, 18, of Enon and New Carlisle passed away Tuesday, March 27, 2018 in New Carlisle. She was born September 24, 1999 in Springfield and was a senior at Greenon High School, where she was expecting to graduate with honors and perfect attendance this year. She is survived by her loving family: parents, Steven Peyton and Cynthia Peyton (McCloskey); sister Vanessa Burback (Coty); grandparents Helen & Larry McCloskey, Kenneth Peyton; uncles Jeff McCloskey (Dayna), Steve McCloskey (Cindi), Brian Peyton; aunts Becky Dean (Steve) and Chris Peyton; cousins Jeffrey McCloskey (Leah and their children Griffin & Averie), Jessica McCloskey (and her child Ronin), Jennifer McFaddin (Rob and their children Eden & Warren), Jacquelyn Weller (Kenton and their children Jensen & Jaycee), Nichole White (Brandon), Adam Siders, Ella McCloskey, Landon McCloskey, Lilah McCloskey, Sabrina Peyton, Valerie Peyton, Ben Peyton; pets Buddy, Cricket, Oreo, Bilbo, Patches.

Erika was a talented young artist and put her skills to use at Greenon in designing the 2018 senior class shirt, the Winterfest dance tickets, as well as spending far too much time on any class assignment involving drawing, just so she could get it “perfect”. She had an accumulated 3.9 GPA, was a member of the Spanish Honor Society and also participated as a teacher’s assistant for the last several semesters.

Erika enjoyed spending personal time watching TV shows with her parents (Big Brother, NCIS, Shadow Hunters), calling her sister “weird” for singing/dancing in public, going to the movie theater, riding horses, reading, drawing, and playtime on her laptop (Minecraft, Wizard101, YouTube), but her favorite pass time by far was spending time with her beloved 5-year-old golden retriever “Buddy” (and taking pet pictures, which she shared often with family and friends MaKayla, Rhiannon, and others). Erika often said that if Buddy had been black she would have named him “Shadow” because he was truly just that for her, following her everywhere, not even going to bed until she was ready (although he would fall asleep across her lap, or bury his face behind her back to block out the light). Like the rest of her family, Buddy already misses Erika tremendously, and her absence from our lives will leave a void that cannot be filled.

A visitation will be held 5:00 to 7:00 PM Tuesday, April 3, 2018 in Adkins Funeral Home, Enon. A private burial will follow at a later date.

“ Erika, so pure at heart. Your love for animals we surely had in common. I will forever cherish the times you came to ride our horse and see our miniature horses. All animals and people instantly felt trust, love and kindness from you.

Even though your light has been extinguished all too quickly it still shines in my heart and it always will! You've only been gone a few days but I miss you like crazy already Erika Lee, but then again, I always will. I wish I could have had one more opportunity to tell you how much I love you face to face and heart to heart but I think you knew that all along. Even though my heart is broken right now, I know that God will let it heal and you'll live there until we can finally be together again.

We Love you Erika and Always Will,

Love Uncle Steve, Aunt Becky Dean and Cousin Adam Siders, Nicole and Brandon White

“ I wanted to share a good memory, one that I cherish and speak about often. I still remeber the summer in which I came over every weekday to babysit you while your sister was in band camp. I had never seen avatar the last air bender and since it was one of your favorite shows you wanted to watch it with me. Everyday I would come over and you would bring down your appa stuffed animal to lay beside us in the couch while we watched our way through all three seasons. You were so excited that I like it to. When you saw how much I loved your appa stuffed animal you bought one for me when you went to Kings Island. It was such a sweet present and I was not expecting it. It really shows that you were one of the sweetest people and had a big heart. I talk about this memory everytime I talk about the show and still have apps proudly delayed on my bookcase. I started watching the show again this week to remind me of a good time when you were a quiet sweet little girl with no worries in the world. We will never understand why this happened and we will spend everyday wishing it never did. There will always be a hole left in our hearts. We will always love you and we hope you are happy and at peace. Love your cousin Nichole

“ Dear Erika,

I'll always miss you. Your Mom will always miss you. Your Sister will always miss You. Your Dad will always miss You.

Family dinners won't ever be complete again. There's gonna be an empty space at the table, in the pictures, on the Christmas cards, and in our hearts. One that only You can fill. At Easter I'll still make your special pickle things without the pickles. But your Mom won't make your Jell-O Easter eggs, because that's something You would do together.

I hope you know that I love you. You were so loved. So so loved. And I don't understand why you did it, and I never will but I hope you're happier. I know right now the family is falling apart without you, but I hope it gets better. I've seen my Mom break down crying because she can't believe you're gone. And my Dad start crying when telling me what happened; I'd never seen my Dad cry before that day. I've seen the redness in your Sister's eyes from crying and the tears permanently marked on your Mom and Dad's faces. I see these things and I wish this wasn't happening; that this wasn't real. But it's real.

The laughs we shared, the birthdays we shared because our birthdays were only a week apart, the art you would show because you were so proud of it, the silent smiles you would share because you would rather sit back and watch then get in the conversation. You were a watcher. The best kind. The silent kind. I thought that was just your personality but maybe it's because you were hiding something. I'm sorry. I'm sorry I didn't notice. It breaks me every second knowing you're not here.

I can't stop thinking about you; wishing, hoping this wasn't real and that you'd show up at the nail salon tomorrow to get your nails done with your Sister and Me. Maybe if I wish hard enough you'll come back? I don't think I'll be able to handle Tuesday. There's still a part of me denying this whole thing but I can't anymore when we have a date to bury you. The grave site's beautiful. There's trees and a pond close by. No matter how pretty you shouldn't be there. You should be finishing your senior year and going to college, getting married, and having kids, accomplishing all your hopes and dreams. There's so much more I wanted to say to you. Just know, I really love you Erika. I love you so much. Please come back! Please💔.
