

Garnet R Payne

December 13, 1938 - February 27, 2018

Garnet R. Payne, age 79, of Enon, Ohio passed away Tuesday, February 27, 2018 from a sudden illness. She was born December 13, 1938. She is survived by her loving husband and best friend, Tom Payne and recently celebrated their 58 year wedding anniversary. Garnet is also survived by her son, Bob Payne and daughter, Julie (Dan) Gibson, four grandchildren, Shannon Bagwell, Tom (Stephanie) Payne, Brad (Jacey) Gibson, and Keith Gibson. She also has two great grandchildren, Tyler and Lauryn Bagwell and a very special Aunt Kenny Munger. She was Aunt Garnet to several nephews, great nephews and great-great nephews and nieces. Garnet was a loving nurturing soul as she deeply loved her family, enjoyed taking care of her flower gardens, and cared for the many children she babysat over the years. She is preceded in death by her parents, Helen Sanders and Harley Colwell and step father Frank Sanders and one sister, Alice Wilson. There will be a visitation for family and friends on Sunday, March 4, 2018 from noon to 1:00 in the Adkins Funeral Home in Enon. Funeral service will be 1:00 following the visitation. Memorial contributions may be made to Mad River Township/Enon Fire & EMS Station, 260 E Main St, Enon, OH 45323. www.adkinsfunerals.com

“ My thoughts and Prayers go out to Garnet and her family. I've known Garnet along time , she was a wonderful Grandmother to my two children Shannon and Tommy. I still consider Garnet my family and I know she still thought of me as her family. Garnet was like a mother to me, I will always love her as a mother. Tina

“ Was shocked to hear of Garnet's passing. My prayers are with her family. I went to junior high and high school with Garnet. I never remember her ever saying a bad word about anyone. I know how much she loved her family & was so proud of them. Will miss seeing & hearing from my classmate.
