

George E Muncy Jr.

March 10, 1942 - December 4, 2025

George E. Muncy, Jr was born March 10, 1942, in Paintsville, Kentucky, and passed away December 4, 2025, in Springfield, Ohio. Known by his many nicknames — Spider, Silk, and later Shaky — George lived with humor, grit, and a love for sports. He was an avid golfer who proudly scored multiple hole-in-ones, and he never missed a chance to swap stories or laughs with family and friends. He was the son of George W. Muncy, Sr and Lorainne (Preston) Muncy, and shared life with his beloved wife, Colleen “Camie” Muncy. Together they were “Home of the Week” winners and beautification judges, leaving Springfield a little brighter. George was preceded in death by his daughter, Karen (Muncy) Gose, his wife Camie, and brothers Reggie and Lee. He is survived by his brother Lafe Harvey Muncy, his son Todd (with wife Amanda), son-in-law Gary, stepdaughters Kristen Goldschmidt (with husband Matt) and Heather Hickle, grandchildren; Jessica (with husband Kevin), Brooke Dale Mari-Lingerfelt (with husband Andrew) Keeghan McLean, Justin Goldschmidt, Stephanie McLean Jewett (husband Zach) and Timothy Joseph McLean (TJ and wife Camille). and a wide circle of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will remember his wit and warmth. A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, December 27, 2025, at 1:00 PM at Miami Valley United Baptist Church in Yellow Springs, Ohio. Family and friends are invited to gather, share stories, laughter, and memories. George’s legacy is best honored by telling a tale, sharing a smile, or playing a round of golf in his name.

“Spider” was a couple of years ahead of me at Greenon. He soon became my hero playing basketball when I was a freshman. I tried emulating him playing BB. I had everything except his talent. It didn't take me long to go to other sports. GOLF. Later on in life we remained good friends. My condolences to his family. "Spider" may you Rest in Eternal Peace. Amen.
