“ As young kids, Jerry was always by my side , Gi Gi as he was called by his siblings and I shared many bedrooms together. It was only natural for me to have him as my best man in our wedding, Jerry attended many weddings, graduation parties and vacations with us. He was a fun person to have around, we're going to miss him very much.

“ Jerry was an awesome brother and uncle. We remember playing ping pong at his house at Thanksgiving. How he loved cooking dumplings and stuffing the turkey. He came to each kids graduations and went to their games. He loved watching you grow into a great dad and running a successful business. I know you will miss him. We all will. Love Steve, Ann, Maria, Jake and Julia.

“ Jerry loved the outdoors and I cannot say I have ever had better food from his pig roasts. Jerry loved to cook for people and made the best dumplings on the planet . I can still hear his chuckle when talking with friends and family. Jerry, you will be missed. Su Sheridan
