“ Harry was one of the most amazing guys I ever had a chance to work with or meet. He just made you smile with his incredible attitude and zest for life.
No matter what the situation may have been, he made sure that you understood we were blessed for having the opportunities we were given.
When Harry would show up with his infectious smile, your day immediately got better.
Harry... I am so proud to have been considered a friend... I and many friends alike will never forget you. Thank you for the cherished memories, you made my life better for them.
TY Harry, and to his family that unselfishly allowed him time away while he worked on the road. I know it was a sacrifice. May God be with you as Harry is now with God.
Blessings,
Drew Gregg
