

Imogene Pack

August 18, 1932 - December 20, 2017

Imogene (Prater) Pack, 85, of Fairborn passed away peacefully Wednesday, December 20, 2017, surrounded by her loving family. Imogene was born on August 18, 1932 to the late David and Sally Ann (Dutton) Prater in Offutt, Kentucky. She married the love of her life, the late Vadis J. Pack, on November 21, 1948, and devoted her life to being a homemaker for their family. She was also a member of the Enterprise Baptist Church in Fairborn. Imogene is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Doris (Gary) Preston of Christiansburg, OH, a son and his fiancé, Larry (Katie) Pack of New Concord, KY, a stepson and his wife, Vadis (Susie) Pack, Jr. of Paintsville, KY, a sister, Earlene (Alan) Devilbiss, nine grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews, neighbors and friends who will all miss her dearly and mourn her loss forever. Imogene is preceded in death by her parents, her husband of 60 years, three sons, Robert Allen Pack, John Kenneth Pack and Jimmy L. Pack, two sisters, Dean and Ruby, four brothers, Dave, Charles, Johnny, and Duke, as well as a grandson, Gary Lee. Imogene was a soft-spoken, dear person who leaves this world a better place both for her Christian light and the legacy of her loved ones. Funeral Services will be held on Saturday, December 23, 2017 at 10:00 AM in the Enterprise Baptist Church (1614 Stewart Blvd, Fairborn, OH 45324) with Pastor Bobby Jenkins officiating. Burial will immediately follow in Byron Cemetery, Fairborn. “ My favorite memory of Aunt Immy is when we were kids (Tammy Chandler and I), we would want to go to haunted houses in the late evening and we would call her and she always said." Now girls Vadis is getting ready for bed and I don't know if I feel up to it", we would say "we're on our way". She would meet us at the door dressed and ready! It was always the best time, sometimes we even threw in some Friendly's. She possibly could Be the most gracious person that ever lived.
