“ Tito Jack, thank you for being such a good friend, kind and giving. You have embraced us and guided us when we were still starting our lives in Ohio. You and Ate Del had played an important role in our family. Thank you for all you have done. We will surely miss such a dear friend. May the everlasting light shine upon you and may your soul rest in blissful peace in the dwelling place God has prepared for you. Our deepest sympathy and condolences, Ate Del and family. May you find comfort in the knowledge that Tito Jack is now in the hands of our God, his home forever.
