“ Uncle Jack always brought the prettiest young ladies to Grandma's house for family dinners when he was in college. I could always get them to read books to me. I always got excited before a big dinner to see which sweet-smelling lady in the soft pastel sweater set would show up with him.

“ My deep felt thanks for being the wonderful father you have always been to our children who loved you very much, I know how deeply they will miss you the rest of their lives but will also gain so very much from what you have taught them. Your job has been well done and you have earned your rest in peace until we all meet again one day.
