“ Karen and Kathy and all Sawyer Family, I will always remember the comfort John gave me when my dad passed and then my cousin Keith within the same year. "There are no guarantees in life, Monica", he told me. We lose loved ones in sometimes suddenly ways. And he gave me such strength. His calm, steady logic and dry wit will never be forgotten. “ Karen, Kathy and Family,

We are saddened that your dear father and our dear uncle passed away. As your St Louis cousins, have so many great memories of the Sawyer summer visits. We were always so excited to hear that "the Sawyers are coming"!! It meant we would go to the zoo, Muny, Cardinals game, Lake of Ozarks, etc and other St Louis treats, that we seldom visit unless we have company! My dad would always say "the rags are flying", meaning Paula Waltersam and Mary Waltersam were on high alert to get all bedding washed and prepared for our visitors.

Especially fond memories are when Grandma Sawyer and Grandpa Sawyer came to St Louis, as well. My Grandma Waltersam was always so glad to see her sister Lynn, along with your entire family. Not so much with Grandpa Sawyer - haha

My dad will always cherish the summers when you dad came and visited Rudy and Hansie, working side by side with them for local farmers. Hard work, great farm meals and feeding the chickens at night. The three were brothers in the true sense of the word.

Smoking cigars with your dad and Uncle Rudy will always be a favorite memory for me, personally. (Cynthia)

*Take care and may we always stay in contact!
love,*

The Waltersam Family and Cynthia, Drew and Keith McAleenan
