“ Though I did not know Josh well, Andre and my son Bruce Bryan spent a lot of time together throughout school. I know that every child is a blessing from God. And God has a plan for each one of them. We may find it so difficult to understand His reasons, but God has chosen this path for Josh and thus brought your son to Him. In that you may find, in time, a bit of comfort. Our whole village is praying for your family.

“ I worked with Josh for many years at Enon Relief. He willingly gave a lot of his time. My memory will be of the ornery guy with the quick wit. He treated Pantry day like “April Fools Day” and we all enjoyed it. Living 5 houses away from Josh and his family, if he passed by and I had my back turned to the street, he would blow his horn and make me jump. I am sure he giggled. I will miss that. God rest his soul.

“ Our hearts are saddened to learn of Josh. I always enjoyed his "jazzy" sport coats and teased him about wearing shorts when he cleared snow. Dave knew he could count on him to keep our church grounds in great condition. We will miss him always throwing a wave as we would see him around town. Prayers for his family as they grieve this tragic loss.

“ Don't think I will ever enjoy winter as much anymore without seeing Josh, in zero degree weather wearing shorts, scrapping ice off the sidewalks around town, including my drive and sidewalk. He was truly a blessing. Jesus will rejoice in hearing him play Old Rigged Cross and How Great Thou Art on Heaven's tremendous pipe organ.

Josh was like a son to Warren and I. We loved him and he was part of our family. He helped us in so many ways. He remained a true friend even after we moved to Fla. He was going to come and spend time with us here. He was a wonderful young man, God was very important in his life. His family, his Mother Ginger, Dad Harold, and his brother Andre, were most important, and he loved them more than words can say. Josh is present with the Lord, probably playing Amazing Grace on the organ. He was so faithful to God, his family, church, the pantry, and to his friends. This has been a tragedy and we will all suffer his loss. To his family, we grieve the loss with you. You are in our prayers, and we send our love. Have peace in knowing, the Lord is with you. Our sincere sympathy, Warren and Tina Gebhart.
