“ LC had a soft side, but if I ever had gotten into a street fight, he’s the one I would have wanted on my side. DL Stewart

“ I have so many great memories of my Uncle Larry. He was a great man. He had the best sense of humor, was a smart, sincere & caring person. I remember as a kid he would drive over two hours every weekend to visit his parents, my grandparents. He was a hard worker, loved sports, loved his beloved wife, Paula. I’m so thankful that we all got to spend a weekend together just last year. We went to Busch Gardens with my brothers family, my mom Larry & Paula and we all had a blast. The picture below is at that trip, of Larry & Paula on the train through getting ready to go through the jungle. I’m so glad he got to enjoy his retirement in the country with Paula doing things they both loved. He was a super cool guy and will be missed by everyone that knew and loved him.

I knew LC from the tennis courts. He was a good player. More importantly, he was always very friendly and nice to be around. Always had time to talk to you. He and Paula were a great match. I will miss him.
