“ Dear Aunt Phyllis, Karen and All,

Bev and I have kept you in our hearts and prayers since the passing of Uncle Leonard. He was such a wonderful man and gentle soul.

We know how holidays can be a bittersweet time, a time of reminiscing, a time of joy and deep sadness. You have experienced so much pain and loss in your lives and we do have a sense of how that must feel. We love you and pray for healing love, peace and the return of joy when it is time.

Blessings and love,

John, Bev Titus and family

“ My heart just breaks that we've lost another Titus brother. Knowles and Winnie raised men of honesty & integrity who were (& are, Uncle Ray) hard workers that never give up, along with the ultimate sister who was all lady with a will of iron. Each of my favorite uncles were special to me in different ways. Uncle Leonard always seemed to be so quiet & calm, but one-on-one his funny, silly side would come out. I've so missed his peaceful presence at our gatherings and wish that we could be there, now for you, Aunt Phyllis, Karen and all. With all my heart, I hope that healing comes soon for you, physically, spiritually & emotionally.
Love always, Jodi & George Lewis

Video brought tears. So many great memories of such a wonderful man. He certainly was very productive in his retirement with woodworking and art. He will be sorely missed.
