She built a long and respected career as a paralegal in downtown Dayton, where her dedication and professionalism earned the admiration of her colleagues. “ Linda and Glen were parents to my lifelong childhood friend Tracey Smith. Glen always jokes and tried to scare me, in a nice way. Linda always had a sweet gentle smile and welcomed me in. She loved coming to visit my mom and I when I came to Ohio. They'd have coffee and chat for hours. She was blessed with a wonderful daughter to help her in these past years. She got to be at home and with her husband because of that. They will always be a very special part of my childhood. Prayers and love to whole family, even though she is at peace, she will be greatly missed.

“ We had a great friendship with her and glen she was the first person when I came to Dayton back in 1972. Even when we moved to Xenia. She came and visited, then went to the bean festival in James town and hung out. She and glen took us to church with them , in Vandalia

Sis, there's so many memories I have of you, and Glenn, and when you gave your heart to Jesus and the hunger you both had to learn more of God's Word and the joy you found in singing for the Lord in church. You had a beautiful voice and I enjoyed singing with you and being around you. I know you are rejoicing in Heaven and free from pain and suffering and glad to see Jesus and family who meet you there. Some day we will meet again; until then my heart will go on singing! Love you❤️
