Lisa was my baby sister, almost 7 years younger. My memories of her are all good. The most prevalent of all my memories of Lisa is her love of horses. I remember her at 5 years old, all by herself going out and getting Prince, my Palomino American Saddle Bred. She would bridle him and then lead him over to Dad's Ford station wagon. Prince was almost 16 hands tall and she was about 3 ft tall (9 hands) so she would climb up on the hood of Dad's Ford station wagon and then hop on to Prince's back and then ride him bareback. She did that all on her own, at five years old, that's how much she loved to ride. I miss her everyday.
