“ You were always so good to all us kids. I will always remember how you made us laugh and opened your home to anyone who stopped by for a visit. So glad you are in heaven and no longer suffering. I will never forget you or how you lived your life. Thank you for all did for the whole big family. You are loved.

“ So not sure if any of this is going to make sense but I'll do my best. Coming from your oldest son, being his oldest daughter is a position in the family that when I was a kid I never thought I would be looked upon for wisdom and guidance. Mamaw you were the last of that generation. Now your grandchildren will look for that wisdom and guidance from Debbie and Jeannie and one day from me. That's a scary thought. If there one thing I'm so very grateful for is the unconditional love you showed each and every one of us in your own little way. Thank you for all you were, thank you for all guidance, thank you for the pots of mashed potatoes and pounds of fudge, thank you for popping me in the mouth for saying "fa*t" in my 40's, thank you for your strong will and determination and not letting your disability get the best of you you got the best of it. Rest easy now, kiss papaw, dad and Brenda for me. Love you lots.... Not saying goodbye going to say until we meet again. Roni

I love you Lois, even when you called me fat butt. lol I know you loved me too. You were always my mother in law. For all the things you taught me thank you. I was just a 16 year old kid with no idea what I was doing. But you were there to steer me in the right direction. For that I thank you. You will be missed. I have missed being around you for a long time. But I know I will see you again.

Aunt Lois thank you for all the love you gave me as a kid. You were neighbors with both my grandmas and I loved just walking over to say hi and get some mint fun you always had. You spoiled all the kids that came around, whether they were yours or your sisters' or especially the grandkids. I can hear you laughing so hard and having a good time with any family around. It is your turn to rest in heaven. I know you will have them laughing in no time.

“ I miss you mom!!!! We have always been together and I am struggling knowing you are not here with me, but I know that you are in heaven and you are not suffering anymore. I'm so thankful I had the honor of being your daughter and taking care of you all of my life. You taught me so many valuable lessons. The one that I always fall back on is "It's not a problem, unless you make it a problem." Or, " No man is worth going to hell over,"....lol That's why I marry them instead of living with them....lol I sure don't want to go to hell, especially since you and dad are in heaven waiting on me. Enjoy your heavenly home and just know that I will ALWAYS LOVE you and there will not be a day that goes by that I won't think about you. Please watch over us and keep me straight!!!! I LOVE AND MISS YOU FOREVER!!!!!!

“ *Grandma,
Thank you for everything you ever did for me and so many others. You were one of the most amazing people. You were always there when we needed you and taught us all so much about how to love one another and to be the best people we could be. I am so lucky to have had a person like you in my life and will never forget all the memories we shared. I'll never forget your stories, our bike rides and your amazing biscuits and gravy. I always remember you saying how you were ready to go to heaven and be with the only man you ever loved and now you can...I love you with all my heart Grandma, please look down on us from heaven and know that we are the people we are because of you. Please know that I appreciate everything you ever did for me and I will always love you.*

“ Grandma, you have been my favorite person since I can remember. I know you’ve wanted to go to heaven for a long time. I remember you used to tell Makayla and I how beautiful it was up there and we’d always ask you if you’d take us with you when you went. I wish I could’ve seen the look on your face when you saw it. I love you more than anything and I can’t wait until I see you again.

Regina and Debbie, please know you have my sympathy for the loss of your Mother. I always enjoyed visiting and knowing such a fine woman and lady as she was. I thought her as another Mother to me as well. I know how hard it is to lose your Mother as I lost my Mother in 2011 and my brother in 2017. But please have faith she is in no pain and a better place. May you rest in peace Lois and i hope i will see you one of these days. And girls know you both will always be in my prayers for you both too. May we all be the best of friends for years to come. Your friend, Jordan

“ Aunt Lois had just turned 13 when I was born and we have been close throughout our lives. She was like an older sister to me and I loved (love) her so much. This is a hard time for me as we shared so much but I know she is with all the rest of our family right now and that is such a joyous thought. With her health it would e selfish to want her to linger. Thinking so much of Debbie, Regina and all their kids. Know this is hard for them, so hard. Much love being sent your way.
