“ Maudie was a good friend and sister-in-law to me. We would sit with a cup of coffee or a soda in one or the other of our kitchens and chat. She wanted to learn how to make homemade bread. When she and my brother John lived on Pleasant Street in Enon I showed her how to incorporate flour into the wet ingredients. She said 'all of this flour how to go in here?' I told her yes. She became an excellent bread baker making all different kinds of bread. She was a very good seamstress too. She not only made Cabbage Patch dolls and Christmas tree skirts, but she made a couple of Prom gowns for Katrina when she was in high school. She was always friendly and loving. She and John spent 59 years together. She is in Heaven and no longer suffering. She blessed us all with her love. May God bless each and everyone. Ann Byerman

“ Maudie, my beautiful 'sister' in-law, she had a heart full of love, fun & beauty! She and I would sit and drink coffee together for hours while Katrina, Deb, Tim & later Scot played. She is in paradise and happy with no more pain. Love you with all my heart and you will be dearly missed by family and friends you leave behind. Mary Lou
