My husband Mike and I got married on the same day as Mike and Donna. When we were younger, we would all go out to celebrate our anniversaries together. Mike was a great guy, and we will miss him.

When my husband Roger and I moved to Enon, Mike and Donna were our first neighbors that we met. Our kids would play with their daughter, Jennifer. We could always count on Mike to pick up our mail while we were out of town. He was a wonderful guy and we will certainly miss him.
