“ “Mikey” and his family moved into our neighborhood when Mikey was 3 years old. He was always a spunky young man and still as an adult. My father and I were working on dad’s car (I was maybe 12-13) and Mikey comes 2 doors down to visit us. He squats down to see what we are doing. My father asks home his name to which he replied. There was a little chit chat and dad asks Mikey “is that your dad’s race car?” Mikey replied, “yes, and when he stats it up it scares the shit out me!” I think my father raised up shocked and bonked his head on our car. At 3, Mike already exuded the spunkiness that we be a part of his personality throughout life. God bless him, his family, and everyone he touched in his shortened lifetime.
