“ I remember my Aunt Nadine making the best spaghetti and meatballs when we would go to their home. She took time to make it right. After all, Uncle Chuck was Italian & it had to be authentic!!
I also remember the "staring contests." She would challenge me as a young kid to out stare her. The first one to blink or look away, lost. She insisted she was better at it & she was right! She gave me that Bela Lugosi stare & I'd always laugh & look away after about thirty seconds!!
