“ I first met Omar when he lived in Aberdeen Ohio and having a small contracting company, I needed help. He was head and shoulders above any of the employees I had, and could do anything when it came to building. He worked for me for a couple years, and we developed a strong friendship which continued until he passed away. I last talked to him about 6 months ago. I am grieved. I've lost a good friend and a swell guy. He was a hell'va man. Rest in Peace, my friend Omar. Lowell Thomas Venice FL

“Wishing you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your hearts. When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure. We never lose the memory of people we love. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their tender investment in our lives leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. May each of you find comfort knowing that your lives have been enriched by much wisdom and insight. When the heart grieves over what it has lost, the spirit rejoices over what it has left. Our thoughts and prayers from Alaska are being sent across the nation to support and encourage our distant family members.

We love ‘you all!’

"Hold On"

Hold on to what is good,

Even if it's a handful of earth.

Hold on to what you believe,

Even if it's a tree that stands by itself.

Hold on to what you must do,

Even if it's a long way from here.

Hold on to your life,

Even if it's easier to let go.

Hold on to my hand,

Even if ‘some day’ I’ll be gone away from you.
