Patricia Fay Plsek, 80, of Enon passed away Saturday, January 2, 2020 at her home in Tipp City with her family. She was born on June 25, 1940 in Dayton Ohio to the late Roby Hughes and Eleanor Painter Stover. Fay was preceded in death by the Love of her life, Wayde Engle, fondly nicknamed by her as “Precious”, and her two grandchildren, Rachael and Brandon, that she holds dear in her heart. She retired from Clark State College as a Nursing Instructor and continued her passion for nursing as a volunteer at Springfield Regional until March 2020. Special thanks to Heartland of Kettering, Heartland Hospice and Coca Anghelache. Fay was loved by all that knew her and will continue in our hearts with fond memories. “ Fay was my nursing instructor almost 22 years ago. I was pregnant and kept going into preterm labor. Fay always took care of me. Made sure I took breaks, put my feet up and drank plenty of water. I was so honored to have Fay pin me at my nursing ceremony. I gave birth 16 days later and Fay was one of my first visitors. I saw Fay for the last time 3 years ago when my dad was in the hospital and she was volunteering. Heaven is a little better with her there.
