“ Patricia and I were friends from Genoa Elementary through Wayne High School. We both married young and went our separate ways. I only saw her one time since graduation. I have so many good memories of her and her family. I spent many nights at her house. One story I tell is the first time I had pizza it was at her house. It was Chef Boyardee. I thought it was the greatest thing since apple pie! This must have been in the early 60's. Although we never stayed in touch, I thought of her and the other girls often. Love and prayers to all.

“ Patty was not only a good sister to me but also a good friend and at times like a second mother. She has shared different memories/events with me of her teenage years growing up with a "little" sister. As I grew, I really enjoyed visiting with her and her family. I have many treasured memories and am thankful that some the latest ones are being with her at church, or sharing things about our family/families and the Lord.
