“ Margaret and Caitlin, Family and Friends, I have such warm and loving and fun memories of Patty. I can't think of anyone who had a more welcoming home, filled with laughter and love. Patty and Dan always had the welcome mat out and greeted us always with smiles, hugs and kisses. The last time we visited your home was special to me. It was the end of your Dad's gardening season and he wanted to show off his "crops". He had beautiful tomatoes and we told him there were none like those in Arizona. He and Patty picked the last the tomatoes of the season from the plants and put them in a bag for us to take home. They insisted and wouldn't take no for an answer. That's who they were. I will miss Patty. She is with Dan. I can hear them laughing now. My heartfelt condolences and love go out to you and family. Love, Cousins Nancy and Chuck.

“ Pat and I had a special connection as nurses working at OSU in Labor & Delivery. Then she became my sister-in-law when she married Danny. Her positive attitude and witty humor kept me laughing. I will miss her. Saundra Rowland

I worked with Pat at St. Charles on the Social Justice Commission. She was very well informed and always thought provoking. The first time I ever heard about the Taliban and its suppressive policies toward women was from Pat, and this was well before 9/11/2001. My condolences to her family.

Patty was my Sponsor for my Confirmation. Our brother Bobby told me the priest slaps you across the face when he confirms you. I was scared to tears. When I told Patty what Bobby said, she started to laugh and reassured me that the priest stop doing that a couple of years ago. That was so Patty, not rating Bobby out, but making sure I was no longer afraid. What a gal...
