In this case I have a lot of guilt you were a good friend who stuck by me while other friends of mine didn't care enough to call or msg me. I know we had a falling out over something so petty and the more time went on I didn't know what to say, I had just thought of you the week you passed away and wanted to get back in touch but didn't know what to say, I waited too long my dude and that's on me. You touched a lot of lives my homie and I'm sure you will continue to do that in heaven. You were genuine to the core, I always said you would of been a great photographer, you had a big heart. RIP my brother

“ Cody, you were my best friend and even though we lived a state apart, we always would call each other to keep in touch. I was hoping to visit you this year cause I knew I needed to.....but I'm thankful for all the times we had together, and how great friends we became over the past ten years. How we always managed to be going through similar things at the same time. We were tied together by fate.

I will miss you dearly, and will mourn your passing for a long time. All I can do now, is start a big fire, crack some beers, and honor your memory. I love you.

“ I'm going to miss you bub. You were my buddy since you started working with me and you were doing great training as an operator. I'm going to miss cutting up at work with you. It's not going to be the same without you. I love ya always and will never forget you my friend. Your heart was pure and the love you have for others, you could always no matter how far away from me, aim and hit me with a slim jim, lol.
His girlfriend, please know he loved you very much, he talked highly of you always.
