“ Rick was the face and hospitality of Heart Of Ohio Antique Mall. Every time me and my husband walked up to him he would treat us like old friends. He had a great sense of humor and went out of his way to help anyway he could. Judging by all the friendships and caring people surrounding him I would say he was a very successful man in the things that really matter. He's home now with his Heavenly Father and I for one will greatly miss him. My heart goes out to his sister and her family. I pray God gives you strength and mends the brokenness over your loss . Till we all meet again.
