“ Ruby...or as I used to call her...Grandma Ruby welcomed me as her own granddaughter when my dad married her daughter JoElla. She was hilarious and loving and I am sorry that I hadn't had more contact with her after by dad and Jo split. RIP Grandma Ruby, you are at peace now

“ My grandma was one of the strongest women I knew.. The one memory that stands out the most was if you did something wrong she would sit you down at the kitchen table for what she called round table, those who had it with her knows exactly what I am talking about. Those who dont, she would sit you at the table, point her finger at you (and you better hope bullets didnt fly out the tip of her finger).. And she would tell you that you better straighten your butt up and do things right!! I only hope that I can turn out to be half the woman she was. It was an honor to take care of her the last 2 months of her life and to be there when she left this world.. I love and miss you grandma, Krissy Ratliff

“ Sending prayers of comfort and healing as you mourn the loss of your sweet mother and grandmother. I have such fond memories of Ruby when I was young and my siblings and I played with Duke and Donna. Ruby was always so welcoming to all of the neighborhood kids. I'll remember her kindness, teaching us how to dance, and her fried chicken. Rest in peace sweet Ruby.
