“ My dear Ruby, our club was so sorry to learn of your passing; we will miss you from the bottom of our hearts. Now, what will I do when I need flowers for an occasion, you were always more than eager to step in and take over the flower situation for me. And, I must say you did a wonderful job, just as I am sure you will do the same when you get to heaven; maybe the good Lord will have you taking over the flowers for him. Won't it be wonderful when ABWA can all meet together again and have meetings like we have in the past. Praise his holy name and God bless you and keep you until we meet again and I will be expecting that big hug you always gave me when we met. I love you Ruby.

“ God does not see his children die, he only sees them come home. I know all those gone on before lined up on each side of the gate and they were cheering Ruby on as she entered the gates. I'm sure My mom, Sister Gladys, Sister Alice, Sister Omie and Sister Bernice led the pack. Talk about kicking up gold dust, they are shouting on the streets of gold because our beautiful sister made it home..., I love you Ruby...I will miss you.
