“ I can still hear your mom calling you by your full name as a little boy 😊. Shawn Everett Eugene Coffee ❤️ I remember you as a little boy who was so cute and funny to a teenager who loved fishing at the park or anywhere. To hanging out with your favorite buddy your Papaw Everett. To being spoiled by your Mamaw Ruth who loved you to the moon and back. Your mom so loved you and it breaks my heart because I know the bond you two had. Both hardheaded and big hearted. You were more like a nephew than a cousin to me and I'll cherish what little time we seen each other. Tara I'm so sorry you lost your best friend and the love of your life. Your love for each other was so special ❤️. Prayers for you and the kids 🙏 Sending hugs and love to you and our family & friends

“Foremost, there are no words which bring comfort in a time such as this but, your family is definitely in our thoughts. I wish I had known Shawn longer rather than roughly a year before his battle began. Even still, Shawn seemed to be able to make any and all welcome and like a friend which makes that short time have a greater impact. He was great with our boys, help me replace their ruined Xbox and these days, those consoles are like oxygen to kids. Having just given the news to the boys, it didn't take long before they reminded and made me laugh over his memory of Shawn. I met Shawn when he started work at Domino's in town and, although I had to have missed Jeremiah's memory, this was also the "Scene of the Crime," so to speak. Knowing Jeremiah and how he so much like me, he probably made some sarcastic remark but, regardless the reason, Shawn picked him up and put him in the Cardboard dumpster in the parking lot, he wasn't able to get out under his own effort. Considering I put him in an EMPTY, NOT RUNNING, washing machine when he was around two, that's hilarious. Doesn't matter how tall you get, there is always a way to put you in timeout.

“May you rest in peace Shawn. You were truly the definition of a good man, an awesome friend, an incredible father and a wonderful husband to Tara. I enjoyed being one of your friends and watching you with your family. You will be missed and loved forever. You have left a lasting impression on so many and I am one of them. Prayers for all of Shawn's family and friends.

“ Words fall short of expressing my sorrow for your loss. Shawn will always be in our hearts and memories. My favorite times with Shawn were the summers that our families spent together at Lake Wanoka. My fondest memory of Shawn is watching the joy he got when he was fishing. He loved fishing! That's how I want to remember Shawn. Gone too soon but never forgotten. Love, Evelyn Roberts
