“ I miss Tammy so much. It just doesn't seem right to not be able to talk to her anymore. I haven't known her for a lot of years like most people sharing memories, I'm sure....but in the short amount of time I was fortunate enough to know her, she made a tremendous impact on my life. We talked about a lot of things we had in common; love of cooking and sharing recipes being just one of them. Both have fathers named Robert, both born in 1962, her beloved nephew Shawn was born on June 27th, and so was my beloved nephew Sean. It was so funny to us that we shared so many things in common, we could have literally talked for hours about them.....and did. One of the many things I admire about Tammy was her love for and dedication to her family...her husband Mason and 'her boys' Boo and Sammy. I know that you're all carrying much heaviness in your hearts due to her absence, so now that's something we all have in common. Love you, Tammy, my soul sister and friend. Rest in Heaven. You're a real angel, and I'll carry you in my heart forever.

“ Tammy, this just don't seem real to me. Your family have always been so special to me. Remembering You and Sharon when you were barely teenagers. Robyn was just a small thing. Your Mom & Dad, were so special to me to, I can remember all of you being here for me in my time of need. God Bless you sweet heart. Say Hi and give Sharon a hug for me. I know you are already with Her and Your Daddy. I may be selfish, but I wish you were still here with us. I LOVE YOU SWEETIE, YOU Fly high for I know you are an Angel.
