“ I will miss my Wednesday morning visits with Terry and Ann. It was the best start to my day. Terry’s kindness showed through from the first moment I met him; talking about all his favorite things, showing me around his pool, telling me about his family and asking me about my life and my family. Such a wonderful person. I’m thankful he can be in heaven, suffering no more. Prayers to Ann and all your family. I pray you find comfort in those quiet moments when you are grieving and miss him most.

“ Terry would always wave or even stop to chat each time I drove past his house. I will always remember his good cheer even when he was in pain. He was a good man.

“ I will always remember walking into the “man cave” and Terry giving me the best hug and asking me “how ya doing Chick?” The world lost one of the kindest men. Love you always, your favorite sister-in-law.

“ I don't know where to begin. Terry could always make me smile and a lot of times just laugh my head off! Ann and the kids grands and greats, we're his world.
I'll have to play a little bingo for him!

Terry was one of kindest, funniest people I had the pleasure to be in my group of friends. I loved him and his wife and lovely family. They all made you feel as if you belonged and were part of their family. I will miss seeing his smiling smile.
