

Thomas Edsel Holcombe

March 24, 1940 - January 23, 2025

Thomas Edsel Holcombe, 84, of Fairborn, passed away on January 23, 2025. He was born on March 24, 1940, to the late Arthur and Mary Alice (Sego) Holcombe in Florence, Alabama. Thomas served our country and was a 2nd Airman in the United States Air Force, he later retired from Delco Moraine (General Motors) where he was a skilled tradesman. He enjoyed bowling, deer hunting and fishing. He is preceded in death by both his parents, three sisters; Doris G, Robbie L., and Barbara F., and a brother; Gary B. Thomas leaves behind to cherish his memory his loving wife of 41 years; Estella Mae (Meyn) Holcombe, a daughter; Terrie L. and Robert Butts, of Centerville, a son; Thomas C. and Kelly Holcombe, of Centerville, two step-daughters; Jayna Ellis, of Fairborn, and Amy Ellis, of Dayton, six grandchildren, three great-grandchildren. A service will be held 11:00 AM, Thursday, January 30, 2025, in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Fairborn. Inurnment with military honors will follow the service in Byron Cemetery, Fairborn. Adkins Funeral Home in Enon will be assisting Thomas' family with his final wishes. Thomas was a kind, caring man who loved his family very much, he will be greatly missed.

Previous Events

Funeral Service

JAN 30. 11:00 AM (ET)

Bethlehem Lutheran Church
1240 South Maple Avenue
Fairborn, OH 45323

Tribute Wall

DW

“ 2018 , Jess Williams, Thomas Holcombe, and Denny Williams

Denny Williams - January 26, 2025 at 08:20 AM

DW

“ Prayers for all the family, Tom was my first cousin, the last time I got to see Tom was at his Sister's funeral in 2018. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. RIP Tom.

Denny Williams - January 26, 2025 at 07:54 AM