“ Vickie Snyder Obituary

Published by Legacy Remembers on Apr. 8, 2024.

Hey there Let's sprinkle a little whimsy into Vickie's farewell:

Vickie Ann Snyder (Howard), the queen of the kitchen and the bingo hall, served up her final dish and called her last "Bingo!" on April 5, 2024, at the sprightly age of 70. Born in Springfield, Ohio, on January 26, 1954, she whipped up joy and laughter just as easily as she did her famous casseroles.

For 40 years, Vickie's culinary magic kept bellies full and hearts warm. When she wasn't ruling the roost at the Wayside Tavern, she was shaking up the cocktail scene one mix at a time. Vickie's recipe for life? A dash of sass, a pinch of spunk, and heaps of love for her sister from another mister Terri Bowermaster and beloved fur babies.

In her spare time, Vickie was a crochet connoisseur, tangling with yarn like a true artist, creating blankets that were more like hugs in fabric form. A proud alumna of Shawnee High School, she never lost her school spirit or her knack for crafting the perfect potluck surprise.

Vickie leaves behind a legacy of laughter and a full set of siblings: Charles, James, Daniel, and Michael Howard; Patsy Davis, Linda Deer, Diane Fager, Rae Jean Sweeney, Billie Howard, and Melissa Tobeileh, who will all dearly miss their sister, the life of the party. She reunites in the great beyond with her husband Charlie Snyder, her parents Hollie and Shirley Howard, and her sister Debbie Jarvis, likely already planning the celestial banquet of a lifetime.

A celebration of Vickie's life will be held in the most exclusive of venues (invitation-only, hush-hush) at a date to be disclosed later. Adkins Funeral Home is playing party planner for this one-of-a-kind send-off.

Here's to Vickie Ann Snyder-may her memory be a recipe for joy and her stories the secret ingredient to countless smiles. Rest in peace, dear Vickie, and save us a seat at your heavenly bingo table.
