“ Mr. Dundon taught my brother, Danny, and I how to play basketball. We live right next door to the Dundons. We used to wait for him to come outside after dinner and asked if he would play basketball with us. He always seemed to have time for us. I was never that good but enjoyed being around Mr. Dundon. Our family grew up with the Dundon family in Enon on South Pleasant Street and I have very rich memories of Mrs. Dundon, Becky, Nancy, and Jody. How time flies but one consolation is that memories can always be retrieved and enjoyed again and again...I just saw Mr. Dundon toss a basketball up into the air and it went right through the hoop as he pulled his pipe out of his mouth and looked at me with that bright smile and said, "Your shot, David." You always have a place in heart.
