“ I always called him Jimmy he was my baby brother. He loved calling me smurf because I was short and love the color blue. One of my favorite memories was when they had his 50th party because we all picked on him. I loved him so much and he never know how much I will miss him. Love you forever baby brother.

Words cannot adequately describe my thoughts and feelings over the loss of James. He was not only a co-worker, a friend, and like a brother. He was also the best man at my wedding. "Coleman" you know my feelings. I'll miss you dearly. Until we meet again---Denny Manning
